

"GUTTERLINE HELPS KEEP HAGGERSTON STATION ON TRACK"

Plygene Gutterline, the revolutionary gutter lining system from HD Sharman was used recently at Haggerston train station to stop the gutters leaking.

Allgood Guttering Limited won the project to resolve the gutter issues at the train station because they have many years' experience as guttering specialists across industrial and commercial projects. Allgood Guttering have worked closely with HD Sharman for over 10 years and knew instantly this was a job for Gutterline.

David Allgood said, "We worked ten consecutive nights to resolve the station's leaking gutters. Gutterline was installed and it's been an incredibly successful job, with no come backs."

Allgood Guttering are always impressed with HD Sharman's customer service as well as their products, "HD Sharman know their product inside and out and always go the extra mile for us. Delivery is always on time, which is exactly what you need in our industry. All our team attended their free training course at their premises but their technical people, Mick and Clive, in particular are very knowledgeable and will always come to site if we need extra help."
